PALM OIL PRICES STEADY TO FIRM

Palm oil prices remained steady to firm in India's domestic market with slight increase in prices. Price firm due to firm Global and Malaysian markets. Prices remained firm due to good demand in festival season. All other edible oil prices are also firm.

PADDY PRODUCTION LIKELY TO INCREASE ON SIGNIFICANT INCREASE IN KHARIF CULTIVATION AREA

Paddy production during current kharif season likely to increase significantly and prices likely to come down from present high. Government likely to ease export curbs on rice if production significantly increased. Exports could prevent excess falling on prices. Supply of paddy and rice likely increase after harvesting kharif crops.

URID AND URID DAL PRICES REMAIN HIGHER DURING THIS YEAR

Urid production during current year likely to drop from previous year due to lower cultivation than previous year during this kharif season. Due to lower production supply could remain lower and prices could remain higher. If supply from imports increase can control rising prices.
