EDIBLE OIL PRICES INCREASED IN DOMESTIC MARKETS

Following increase in palm oil prices other edible oil prices are increased in domestic markets of India. Palm oil prices again increased by Rs.10 to 15 for 1x 10 lts box and other edible oil prices, such as Sunflower oil, Soy bean oil, Vanaspathi and Gingelly oil and Coconut oil prices are also significantly increased. Demand likely to remain higher during festival season.

NEW CROP ONION ENTERED INTO THE MARKETS

New Kharif crop onion harvests started and entered into the markets. New crop onion prices are slightly lower than old crop onion. New crop production in Karnataka is said to be lower than last year according to the news sources. Onion price have been increased after the announcement of removal of minimum export price for onion exports. New crop harvest could begin in Maharastra during next month.

ARECANUT PRICES LIKELY TO INCREASE

Due to lower production during last year arrivals to the market could be lower than expectation in coming days. Arrivals from choll or double choll quality also could be lower due major portion of these quality may sold till this month and production in before past year also lower in coming days. Production during this year also affected from excess heat climate during April, May months last year. Production could be dropped significantly in coming new crop harvests.
